Explanatory Notes on Main Statistical Indicators

Lawyers

according to the existing law of lawyers, 'lawyer' refers to a practitioner who has acquired a lawyer's practice certificate pursuant to law and provides legal services to the party.

Notarial Personnel

refers to people working for notary offices including: directors, deputy director, notaries, assistant notaries, and other people providing assistance.

People's Mediators

refer to workers on the people's mediation committees responsible for mediating in civil disputes and cases of slight infraction of the law. They include members of the people's mediation committees and personnel appointed by the people's mediation committees.

Number of Labour Dispute Cases Accepted

refers to the total number of labor dispute cases and handled by the Arbitration Commission.

Number of Participants of Basic Endowment Insurance for Urban Workers refers to staff and workers participating in the basic endowment insurance for urban workers according to relevant regulations at the end of the reference period, who have already had payment records in social security management agencies, including those who have interrupt payment without terminating the insurance programme and and retirees who participate in the basic endowment insurance for urban workers. Those who have registered in the programme but with no payment records are not included.

Number of Participants of Basic Endowment Insurance for Urban and Rural Residents refers to people participating in the basic endowment insurance for urban and rural residents who registered with the participation and established payment records, and who were 60 years old or above when the system was established and registered with the participation. Those who cancelled their registration are not included.

Number of Participants of Basic Medical Insurance for Workers

refers to the total number of workers and retirees who participate in the basic medical insurance for workers (implementation of unified accounts and separate establishment of pooled funds) at the end of the reference period.

Number of Participants of Basic Medical Insurance for Urban and Rural Residents refers to the number of people participating in the basic medical insurance for urban and rural residents managed by the medical security department at the end of reference period.

Number of Participants of Unemployment Insurance refers to the number of staff and workers in urban enterprises or institutions who have participated in the unemployment insurance according to relevant regulations, and other people who have participated according to local regulations at the end of the reference period.

Number of Participants of Work-related Injury Insurance refers to staff and workers who have participated in the work-related injury insurance according to relevant regulations and employees who work as self-employed and have participated in the work-related injury insurance at the end of the reference period.